

Six predefined response programs — one experiment, two donor pools

Positive removal means the program supports flight/ground separation; panels use each classifier's own score scale.

